BALTIMORE—APRIL 28th, 1815.

NO. 31.

Cohen's Lottery & Exchange Office.

"HOC SIGNO FORTUNA."

The enemy, in the late war, having the command of the bay and all its rivers, by the superiority of his fleets was able completely to block up every avenue of water communication with Baltimore—In short, no city in America has suffered so severely by the war in its trade and commerce, and none has so much cause to be pleased with the return of peace. Already are our wharves thronged with vessels, our streets crowded with passengers, and our taverns filled with country dealers. In every quarter of the city may be seen new houses; building, old ones repairing, and numerous shops fitting up and decorating—in every street, lane and alley, rents advancing!

Besides a superb Monument about to be raised to the honor of the immortal WASHINGTON, in WASHINGTON SQUARE, and another in WASHINGTON PLACE, to the memory of those brave men who fell in the memorable British demonstration on the 12th and 13th of September last, it is in agitation to erect in a central part of the city, a public building as an EXCHANGE, for the convenience of our Merchants and Traders, with suitable offices for brokers and other mercantile agents, and also a large and spacious chamber, in imitation of the Tontine Coffee-house in Glasgow, said to be the completest building of the kind in Europe.

—AMERICAN.

At a naval court martial held on board the frigate Java in this port, for the trial of thirteen of the crew of the letter of marque Vixen of New-York (arrived at this port, on a charge of mutiny; they were found guilty and all sentenced to forfeit all their pay, prize money and emoluments and all (except a boy) to receive fifty lashes each.

Littleton W. Tazewell, Esq. of Norfolk, is appointed Secretary to the Naval Board and Messrs. Cha's G. Goldsborough & C. G. De Witt, clerks.

IMPORTANT NEWS—An express reached this City at 2 o'clock this morning bringing several letters, the substance of which follows:

The Schr. Sine-qua-non in 25 days from La Rochelle arrived at New-York on Wednesday evening, and brings news that BUONAPARTE landed at Frejus with 600 men and was joined by Berthier with 20,000 men and the soldiers flocking to his standard—that on the 20th. of March he entered Paris at the head of 80,000 effectives—resumed the Throne and issued a decree and proclamations appointing his officers &c. (who are named in some of the letters) and a decree sequestering all British property—The minister of War was said to be in the plot—Louis & family had fled to England—The tri-coloured flag had been flying 10 days before the Sine-qua-non sailed.

The above is credited in this City—we give it as received—the next arrival will confirm or refute the accounts.
